- Approval of May Minutes
 - The committee by consensus approved the May meeting minutes.
- Progress 911 PSAP Joint Communications Center
 - City officials met with County on May 31, 2007. Another meeting is scheduled for June 7, 2007 to discuss costs of operational move. There will be 3 entities working in the same room but with separate reporting structure.
 - The Committee is encouraged with the movement toward consolidation and is appreciative of the marked progress.
- Update on Computer Forensic Detective
 - Committee consensus to speak with the mayor about going to the legislature to strengthen jail time for repeat prostitution offenders; also civil penalties coming back to the local jurisdictions in order to do educational programs, etc. on prostitution.
- Emergency Vehicle Traffic Signal Preemption
 - Consensus motion in support of initial emergency traffic signal preemption program and asked for city-wide traffic signal synchronization.
- Patrol & Drug Interdiction Methodologies
 - Committee supports Chief Hogan’s policy of aiming for midpoint balance of laws governing reasonable suspicion and probable cause.
- Review of APD Policies on Adjudication Potential as a Determination of Arrests
 - Chief Hogan gave brief summary reporting that officers take appropriate enforcement action as necessary and are not deterred by outcome of what adjudication may be.
- Public Comment
 - No public comment
- Meeting Adjournment
 - The meeting adjourned at 8:15 a.m.
